

Indecision is that slatternly housewife by whose fault the moth and rust are allowed to make such dull work of life.—Edith Clarel.

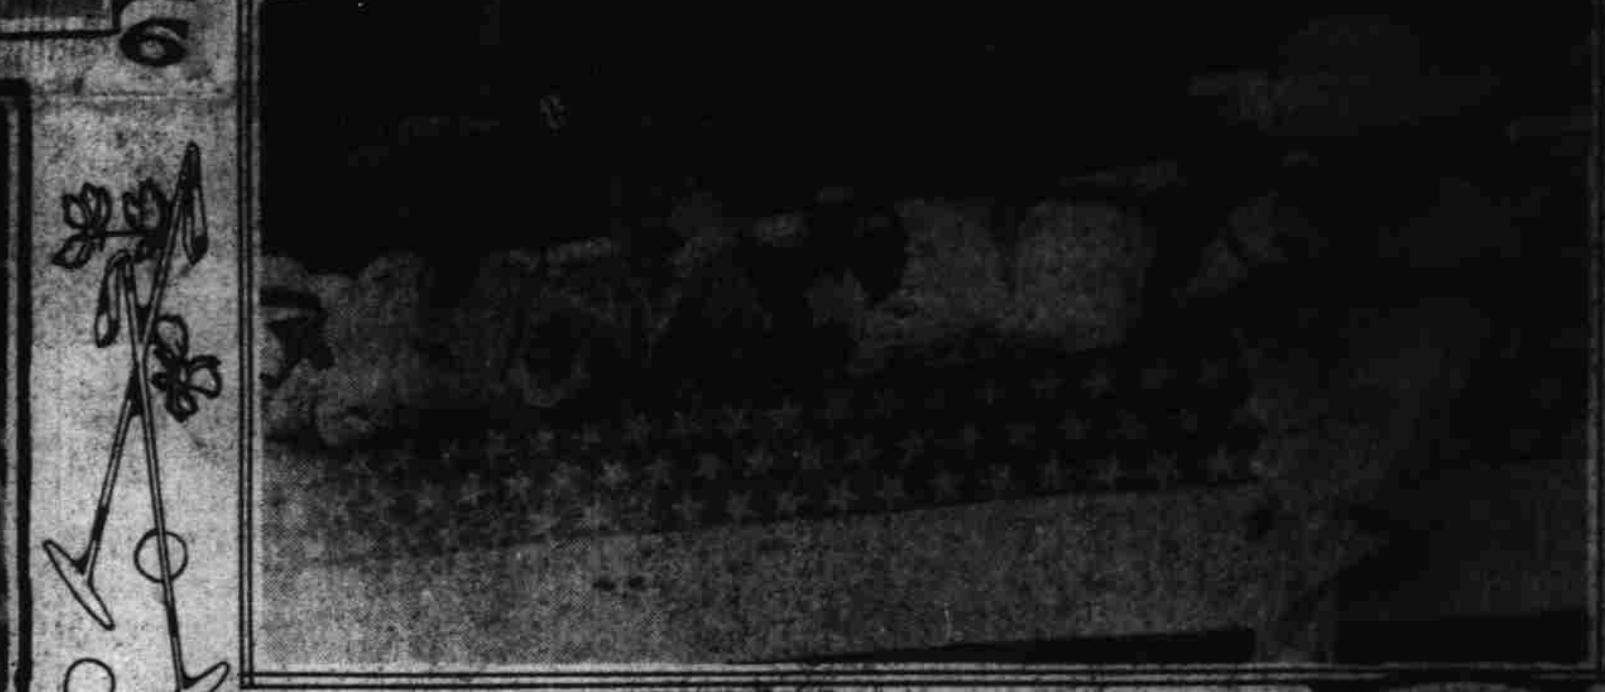

Honolulu Star-Bulletin

HONOLULU, TERRITORY OF HAWAII, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1916.

NINE

SOCIETY

Lured by racing & polo

Society people and scenes on the opening days of racing and polo last Saturday and Monday. No. 1 shows the winner of premier racing honors, Lieut. A. K. C. Palmer of Schofield Barracks, receiving congratulations and a beautiful cup from Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, who presented the trophies. Lieut. Palmer rode Lieut. R. E. D. Hoyle's great mare Satisfax to victory in the Oneonta Mile on Saturday and in the half-mile free-for-all on Monday, both setting new records. No. 2 (left to right)—Mr. Fred W. Macfarlane, Mr. Robert Purvis, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mr. Robert McNary. No. 3, on extreme left—Mr. E. F. Cykler; on right—Mrs. Eustie and Mr. Rufus Spalding. No. 4—A moment in the polo game, when Oahu and Kauai were trying to get the ball out of a group of milling players. No. 5—Capt. Harney Evans, Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Brig-Gen. Robert K. Evans, Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson. No. 6—Start of a polo chukkur with the ball thrown in. No. 7—Start of a running race. "They're off!" No. 8—Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Victor S. Houston, Prince J. K. Kalaniana'ole, Lieut. Comdr. Victor S. Houston, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth. No. 9—Mrs. W. Coombs, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. T. H. Petrie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Shingle, Mr. T. H. Petrie. No. 10—The lineup of beautiful cups offered as trophies.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert Evans' Dinner-Dance.
Capt. and Mrs. James McRae's Country Club Dinner.
Mrs. Francis Gay's Surfing Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright's Dinner Party.
The Hind's Dancing Party.
Mrs. James Bicknell's Card Afternoon.
Mr. H. B. Weller's Dinner Party.
Mrs. Olaf Sorenson's Luncheon Hostess.
Mrs. L. C. Howland's Bridge Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Patterson's Studio Tea.
Mr. James McInerney's Dinner Host.
Mr. Guy Buttolph Entertains.
Mrs. W. Mather an Informal Tea Hostess.
Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds McGrew's Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers' Buffet Luncheon.
A Sunday at The Dunes.
Lieut. and Mrs. Roy Le C. Stover's Tavern Dinner.
Mrs. Jack Hayes's Luncheon Hostess.
Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Stainback's Informal Tea.
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Genoves' Chowder Supper.

—well, less strenuously. The week just closed may be fittingly considered a gay one, for the time surely has not dragged. Every moment has been full, wholly informal but on the jump. The last six days have been given over almost entirely to out-of-door affairs. A number of small bridges have been given by those not caring for the more strenuous activities. Every available hour has been crowded. For the out-of-town visitor so many old friends were to be phoned to and the pleasure of a tete-a-tete luncheon enjoyed.

There will be no dull moments from now on, thank goodness, for the cool of the year is very near when every one "who is anybody" at all does his or her part and tries to rid conscience of the many social obligations that heap up until one is really bewildered and at a loss as to which is the best way out of the chaos. How differently Honolulu of today enjoys itself from yesterday! Then we spent the day at the race track, came home "dead beat" and were several days getting into our natural groove. Today we go to the races, ride miles to lunch at the other end of town, back to the races, then enjoy a swim, then dinner and haven't to swimming meet. When that is over one would suppose it sufficient. Not a bit of it. Supper at one of the cafes then the roof garden with its gay lights or Heinle's, or else it is the wind-swept and lovely Country Club for a late dance.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD IVERS' BUFFET LUNCHEON

Last Monday during the race intermission Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers invited a large company of friends to enjoy a buffet luncheon with them at their lovely Kaalawala home. Mrs. George Potter sat the coffee urn. Great clusters of American Beauty roses made the rooms and lanais lovely to look upon. Some among the Ivers' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Catherine Bodrero, Mrs. Senni, Mrs. Alice Macfarlane, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Betty Case, Miss Nora Swanzy, Mr. Lionel Walden, Lieut. Samuel H. Tilghman, Mr. Cyril Damon and others.

A SUNDAY AT THE DUNES

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle entertained a merry set of guests last Sunday at the Dunes.

day at the Dunes, the Castles' summer home on windward Oahu. The guests motored over in the early morning and a day of real delight was enjoyed. The Castles have the happy faculty of always bringing the right set of friends together and the results are ideal. Their guests for last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs. and Miss Hineckley of Washington, Mrs. Catherine Bodrero, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson Bishop, Lieut. and Mrs. D. Palmer, Miss Laura Low, Mr. Frederick Wichman, Mr. Alan Lowrey, Mr. James Spalding of Kaula and others.

MRS. HARRY GRAY A HOSTESS

On Friday of this week Mrs. Harry Gray was hostess at a luncheon honoring Mrs. Fred Damon, who leaves for a mainland trip next week. Covers were laid for eight guests. The afternoon was devoted to the always absorbing game of bridge. Those invited were Mrs. Fred Damon, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Arthur Hodgins, Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mrs. Samuel A. Walker, Mrs. Frank Richardson and Mrs. James D. Dougherty.

CAPT. AND MRS. JAMES A. GALLOGLY'S INFORMAL DINNER

Capt. and Mrs. James A. Gallogly entertained on Tuesday evening at dinner honoring Lieut. Albert L. Hall, who was their house-guest during the transport's stop here. A basket filled with pink roses, traced the table center. After dinner Mrs. Gallogly and their guests motored to Heinle's, where dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours. Capt. and Mrs. Gallogly's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and the guest of honor, Lieut. Hall.

MISS MARTHA HOBSON HONORS HER HOUSEGUEST

Last Sunday evening Miss Martha Hobson honored her house-guest, Miss Olivette Russell, by giving a supper dance. Miss Hobson has just moved into her handsome new home on Pacific Heights. It is one of the very best homes on the hill. Miss Russell has been visiting Miss Hobson for the past four months. She left for her California home on the Wednesday. The guests invited to honor Miss Russell were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Judge and Mrs. William B. Lyman, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stainback, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mrs. Victor Lucas, Miss Abbie Lucas, Mrs. Robert Albert Lyman, Mr. R. Lyman, Mr. Dobruzan, Lieut. F. Sloan and Mr. Alipaki Smith.

MAJOR HERBERT O. WILLIAMS' DINNER

Major Herbert O. Williams is entertaining this evening at a dinner for twenty guests. The affair is taking place at Halekua Hotel.

POLO, the horse races and the national swimming meet have attracted so many outsiders to Honolulu that for this season of the year the hotels have a noteworthy list of travelers. The Schofield, Kamehameha and Fort Armstrong people motor in and put up at the hotels very often overnight to enjoy the gaiety. The presence of the Jay Goulds, who are polo and racing enthusiasts, has given an added interest to the week since they are real additions to social affairs. Nothing in the way of formal affairs have been given yet scarcely a home in the city, but has had its dinner-guests this week. Informality has been the keynote of the week. The Richard Ivers gave one of the very largest affairs of the week when they entertained about thirty luncheon guests between races on Monday. Mr. James McInerney entertained a number of guests as did the Walter Dillinghams, the Harold Castles, the George Beckleys, the C. W. Case, Deering, Mr. Ernest Parker and Mr. H. B. Weller. Walkiki practically kept open house on Saturday and Monday for the friends who went to the races at Kapoli and park. The boxes were filled with Honolulu's smart set, some of whom were Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Col. and Mrs. Curtis Iaukea, Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Brig-Gen. and